Re: United States v. [REDACTED] (Sobow Nidal)

Docket No.: (Sobow Nidal)

Dear Judge (Cote)

I write this letter in mitigation of the sentence to be imposed upon my uncle in the above referenced case, and to state that my uncle's imprisonment will have a huge impact not just on myself but on my other family members as well. I know that my uncle has committed offenses, and that it is incumbent upon the court to punish him for committing those offenses. However, I think it is important for your honor to realize that my uncle did not return to the country after being deported to commit any further crimes, but to make up for the lost time with his children and family that didn't just impact me but the rest of the family. He wanted his presence around to help around the house and just spend time with us as well. He and his family are truly grateful for the time period he was with us.

After he left us a piece was missing from us everyday. He used to tell me and my brothers not to make the same mistakes as him but to improve and be better. When he was in the always told us to do our best in school because he wanted to see us achieve our goals. I know my work made him stress that now made it extremely difficult and often impossible for him to be with us. He now has to live with those chairs as do we. Despite my uncle's many mistakes he made a good effort to be a uncle and to be there for us in anything he needed. Unfortunately his efforts have landed him in prison and could take him away for a longer time period than before. I only ask that you consider this letter.

Even though you have a really busy schedule, I thank you again for reading this letter and considering how much my uncle means to me.

Yours truly,
